

NIC Makeup Success Story

NIC Graduate Andrea Alcala Wins Emmy Award for Outstanding Makeup!

We are thrilled to announce that our outstanding NIC makeup graduate, Andrea Alcala (@akristina), has won an Emmy Award!

Andrea took home the prestigious award for Outstanding Period Or Fantasy/ Sci-Fi Makeup (Non-Prosthetic) at the 76th Emmy Awards for her exceptional work on FX’s Shōgun. Her incredible artistry brought the characters to life in breathtaking detail, demonstrating her unmatched creativity and skill.

Shōgun made history by winning 14 Emmy Awards at the Creative Arts Emmy Awards on Sunday night, the most ever for a single season of a television series. Andrea’s contribution to this record-breaking success is a true testament to her talent and dedication.

This Emmy win is a monumental achievement in the world of television, placing Andrea among the industry's best and shining a spotlight on her immense talent. The Emmy Awards are one of the most revered honors in entertainment, celebrating only the top contributions in the field. For Andrea to receive such recognition is a true testament to the dedication and expertise she honed here at New Image College.

We couldn’t be more proud to see one of our own make such an impactful mark on the global stage. Andrea’s journey from NIC’s classrooms to winning television’s highest honor is a powerful inspiration for all our students and alumni. Please join us in celebrating Andrea Alcala’s incredible win—and here’s to even greater successes in her future!

NIC Makeup Success Story

NIC Instructor Rebecca Lee Wins Prestigious Emmy for Makeup Artistry on Shōgun!

We are incredibly proud to announce that our brilliant NIC instructor, Rebecca Lee (@rebeccalee.ca), has won an Emmy Award!

As the Makeup Designer for FX’s Shōgun, Rebecca’s artistic mastery and meticulous attention to detail led her makeup team to an Emmy Award for Outstanding Period Or Fantasy/Sci-Fi Makeup (Non-Prosthetic) at the 76th Emmy Awards. Her expert craftsmanship brought the characters to life with a level of authenticity and creativity that captivated audiences and set a new standard in makeup design, contributing to Shōgun’s historic success of winning 14 Emmys, the most ever for a single season of a television series.

Winning an Emmy is one of the most prestigious honors in the television industry, recognizing the highest level of talent and contribution. Rebecca’s achievement highlights not only her exceptional artistry but also her commitment to pushing the boundaries of what makeup can achieve. As a dedicated instructor at NIC, her award-winning skills continue to inspire and shape the next generation of makeup artists.

We are thrilled to celebrate Rebecca’s remarkable accomplishment, and her Emmy win stands as a shining example of the impact that dedication, creativity, and attention to detail can have on the global stage.

Join us in congratulating Rebecca Lee on her well-deserved Emmy Award!

